Special Notes:

As we wrap up adding 12 today. We will be doing an addition quiz on all numbers 1-12 tomorrow. Students will have an additional 2 minutes for a total of 6. This will be used to assess addition fluency. Then we will move on to subtraction.

Be on the lookout for a handout about career week and another about our Valentine's day party.

Today you will be getting your student's winter map scores. I have highlighted their percentile score. What the score means: If the score is 55, your child scored better than 55 percent of other first graders nationally. So 50% is average. If you would like to have a conference or phone conference about map scores or progress, please put a note in your child's planner.
